

All These Years

Static-X

Everything we share is nothing
Everything we share is now dead
My emotions are distorted
Creeping silence, nothing is said

This is what it's come to, don't you
Don't you hate me? I know I would
I remember times of innocence
Take it back, I would if I could
I'll destroy you

Visions of Hell consume my thoughts
Forgotten tears
Through all these years
My fainting hopes have disappeared
Through all these years
Through all these years

I'll destroy you

Visions of Hell consume my thoughts
Forgotten tears
Through all these years
My fainting hopes have disappeared
Through all these years
Through all these years

As I sit here in my dark room
Twisted music pounding my head
Rules are broke and I can tell you
I know I'll destroy you too

I'll destroy you

Visions of Hell consume my thoughts
Forgotten tears
Through all these years
My fainting hopes have disappeared
Through all these years
Through all these years
