Don't disrespect me with that talkin' that you talk
Don't try and seduce me with that walkin' that you walk
Swish swish swish swish like a Glock
But you still gon' make that thing pop
You say you want somebody with some cash in it
I'm lookin for a cutie with some ass in it
And if you smart I'm'a feed you ice
And if you got a heart you could be my wife
But nobody tick all of the boxes
That's why I gotta keep a couple options
Running away from all the nonsense
I, be feelin' it cause I'm really in it
The past be havin' a nigga timid
Timmy turn to make a wish
I wish you could be my bitch
I wish you could be my girl
Know you could be my world
I tried to stay occupied
Cause what they say be truly lies
So if I quit I truly tried
No need to ask me why

I been fuckin' so damn good
That I'm scared
Scared you'll fall in love with me
But I ain't there

I'm feelin' like the crazy hoe factory
Crazy hoe factory
Crazy hoe factory
Crazy hoe factory
Welcome to the crazy hoe factory
Crazy hoe factory

Don't ever call a crazy bitch a crazy bitch
Don't ever call a lazy bitch a lazy bitch
If it don't go right he's manipulating
And if he speaks his mind he's a misogynist
Obviously someone got a great imagination
But I don't wanna say it's you cause then you'll say I'm hating
I don't wanna tell the truth cause then you'll say I'm mean
I wish that I could lie but I'm just being me
Like why does being real gotta come with all those insults
You said that you don't like when niggas lie to you right
I'm just tryna be the one to give you what you need but Give you what you don't so you can sleep at night
But when I get caught and try to ruin my life
Key my car
Stab my tires
Find my side bitch and try to cut my ties
Make me feel sad and try to flip my smiles
It's like a lose-lose situation

You say that I'm a real nigga imitation
I say that I'm a real nigga period
And then you missed your period

I been fuckin' so damn good
That I'm scared
Scared you'll fall in love with me
But I ain't there

I'm feelin' like the crazy hoe factory
Crazy hoe factory
