Statik Selektah

I puff exotics while I touch deposits
Godbody, money maker, I'm such a profit
Fuck the cops and suckers watching
If I do a movie I'm the leading man
I'm John Wick you guys are Peter Pan
Bring it to your crib just like a pizza man
I'm 5' 10 but my aura is giant
Never follow rules I'm sorta defiant, aggressive bordering violent
But only if a nigga showing a lack of civility
I came way too far to let a rapper belittle me
I'm chasing the bag, race to the cash with agility
I see right through a cap nigga tendencies
They said hip hop was sick
I told Statik I'm back with the remedy
Cause I ain't jacking the energy
These cats in the industry getting wacker it triggers me
Back to the basics
Slashing rap niggas faces
The cut worse the faster the blade is
Crashing the braces
You niggas better duck down
I swear to God I send a buckshot of static on Casey, nigga

Aye we got it locked
Yeah nigga we got it locked right here
Aye you know I got the Glock
You fuck around and get shot right here
Aye we speedin' to the top right here
They say we running but we not we right here
You fuckin with me you not right here

Yeah, yeah
They tryna be something I'm on my own shit
They tryna be runners I'm tryna own shit
Them niggas is fumbling with a loan shark
Saying that they real niggas really on some foe shit
Fuck tryna be something I really am that
In a matte Benz, on a bus, or the Amtrak
I'm with the fam you running to where the fans at
When I'm in the hood I'm good nigga you ran at
Phone/wallet/keys like you leavin' the crib
You could talk real tough but we see what you did
I got a few cribs dawg you don't know where I live
No names on the property
Good luck finding me
Million Dollar Baby and I still go to Dollar Tree
Real riches feel like peace the doves flock to me
The simple shit in this life is a lot to me
I'm never going to take it for granted, I do it properly

Aye we got it locked
Yeah nigga we got it locked right here
Aye you know I got the Glock
You fuck around and get shot right here
Aye we speedin' to the top right here
They say we running but we not we right here
You fuckin with me you not right here
