Statik Selektah

Turn my headphones down a little bit, yeah

(Statik Selektah)

No 'Tune, turn my voice up a little bit

Yeah

Nightmares about my deepest secrets out

Two months inside the crib, it's time for me to leave the house

I wanna put my hands around the girl that I've been thinkin' 'bout

At a distance I feel like she's someone I would keep around, but

When we're together I be thinking, "Damn, I need to get back to Atlanta"

I be thinking "Damn, I need to get back to the music"

Time keeps slipping, gotta watch the way I use it

Lot of new acquaintances, I watch the way they moving

Watch how much stock I'm putting in the way I look 'cause it's gon' wash away the soonest

The girls I talk to want the truth from me directly

But I tell 'em in my music, it's an awful way to do it

I would like to find love 'fore my time's up

Don't get me wrong, I know I'm young and I ain't tryna rush

It just seems nice

But it's tough when nobody matches up to the hype or really are the way they seem like

Right after Mac Miller died, Statik took me to the club and told me what a great person that he was

First person I had spoke to that was hurt the way he was

It stuck with me then and it still does

At times it feels like the end times

I feel like I'm gon' get everything I want in time, but will it be in time?

A pandemic and climate change at the same time

Doesn't make you feel like everything's fine, quite the opposite

I'm a skeptic but I'm still quite the optimist

I'ma try to stay that way 'til I do not exist

I'm hoping for some more time, in fact, a lot of it

T- T- Time

Time (Time's limited), I'm hoping for some more time

T- T- Time

Time (All the time), I'm hoping for some more time, in fact, a lot of it

Time, time, time

Time, time's limited

Time, time, time (One day at a time)

Time (In time- In- In time)

Time

Time is the most valuable currency in the world

You can never buy it back

Choose what you spend it on wisely
