Alright, ladies and gentlemen, for your consideration
We present to you Trill Statik 3
An ill arrangement produced by Statik Selektah
The boss of Boston and me
I'm spittin' all these lyrical bronzes, talkstin'
So whether you like your hip-hop flossin' or traditional Terms are unconditional when we spit out this vicious flow
And yeah, I brought the homies with me, it's reciprocal
But this shit hittin' different, bro, it's best you sip it slow
I'm sittin' low, but still higher than eagle-eyes
Smokin' on black, walkin' in legalized
Don't be surprised when I'm in your city and you see the guys
And that heater rise, ready to hit a home run Jeter-sized
So when I'm mad, bad boy, you best step back, back 'Cause when I make them thangs clack, clack, it's a fact, Jack
You gon' get smacked back to your senses
Fuckin' with kings, so even princes end up jumpin' the fences
Not the one from H-
Town, but the rest of you niggas is straight clowns
Make you a pallet, you get laid down
So put your jammies on, 'cause it's time to put in work
So if you ain't ready like Big Perk, you better carry on 'Cause for you suckers, this is nap time, tuck 'em in This ain't for children, this for women and some fuckin' men
If I don't speak, then we ain't cool, I ain't your fuckin' frie nd
Don't call me fam, I ain't your fuckin' kin, fuck 'em then
'Cause I'ma handle this pragmatically, today it's all about me and Statik G
