

The Tower

Stavesacre

We are ready for battle
We are ready for war
We've waiting so long
The lines have been drawn
The villains are outside the door

Away
Away

Gather all that is precious
Leave nothing exposed
Mistakes will be made
But we're raising the gate
Good stewards indeed
Must look after our own

Away
Away

We give thanks
For the tower
Look at us now
Sleep Well
In here we are safe
The day and the hour
Are upon us
You mustn't go out
Our reward will surely be great

Certain of purpose
Entrenched with the truth
Not to be swayed
Our minds are well made
The wise do not suffer the fools

Away
Away

I can hear the horde singing
We can see you from here
We know you can hear us
We know that you fear us

Let us in
The end is near

Away
Away

We give thanks
For the tower
Look at us now
Sleep Well
In here we are safe
The day and the hour
Are upon us

Our reward will surely be great

We built the walls so high
And nobody came
Nobody came
They died along the way
And nobody came
Nobody came
They died along the way
And nobody came
Nobody came

We give thanks
For the tower
Sleep Well
In here we are safe
The day and the hour
Are upon us
You mustn't go out
Our reward will surely be great

We give thanks
For the tower
Look at us now
Sleep Well
In here we are safe
The day and the hour
Are upon us
