

tried to set me up (not that i deny my carnal mind) but when i was down you couldn't be found but to assist in my self-inflicted pain
!had enough
i gotta get on while there's still life left in me i see the lies
i think we've both been used wasted time and wasted life and what with what we've been through?
better off
even our best intentions can destroy us
i see the lies
my soul divides in inner riots oh, what i would do for you!
you and i
divided, on display fare thee well, my heart goes with you till we meet again...
