

Genevieve it's so amusing
You use my words but without the meaning
Genevieve you're so confusing
In my world, it's untold

Could've been a friend in your head
But nevermind I got no time to find what you said
Said to me, you said you'd like to meet me
In my world, in your head

It's alright with me, girl
It's alright to make me feel this way
You're all I'll ever need, girl
You'll never know how to feel this way

Look to the sun and you'll come undone
It's all just a dream you're feeling
Look to the sun and you'll come undone
In my world you'll unfold

Genevieve you'll cry for nothing
You're telling lies
It's no surprise your eyes are burning
Burning down, burning out, burning all of these
In my world, you'll unfold

It's plain to see to me you're living life in other one's eyes
Catching rain like a stormy grain in the sand
It's obvious to me you're acting like somebody
Who knew you, you're untrue

Listen to me, you are not free
Anybody, can see, you're me.

Listen to me, you are not free
Anybody, can see, you're me.

It's alright with me, girl
It's alright to make me feel this way
You're all I'll ever need, girl
You'll never know how to feel this way

It's alright with me, girl
It's alright to make me feel this way
You're all I'll ever need, girl
You'll never know how to feel this way

Look to the sun and you'll come undone
It's all just a dream you're feeling
Look to the sun and you'll come undone
In my world you'll unfold
