

Liven Up

Stealing Sheep

Do you find it hard to settle down
Don't you think there's time to learn how
Your body's rushing and your mind is catching up
And your eyes tell everyone you've had enough

So it's time, and time will tell
You need to cast a new spell
And liven up, and up and up
And up and up and up

When I talk I say wonderful things
It's as if my words have grown wings
They will say it isn't true
We're just like them, well I'm with you

When words that once were yours behave
As if they have no thoughts
Beware of what you say there's no regrets
On quiet, quiet days

And time will tell
You need to cast a new spell
And liven up, and up and up
And up and up and up

So you've heard it all before
My fickle words they soar
They get so loud
I give up making any other sound

Got to take every word I say
And keep it locked inside my head
Got to lose that key straight up
So no one can see
How horrible I can be

They will say it isn't true
We're just like them, well I'm with you

Hey, there are times when you fall down
Because you're tripped by dark clouds
Remember way before they feel too welcome
And they choose to overstay

Hey, never mind what it was you said before
It just came without a thought
And after all you have got yourself a new side
And the world will open wide
