Take Me Back

Stealing Sheep

Something changed what you want, what you need
Something changed what you want
Something changed what you want, what you need
Something changed what you want

Something changed

Something changed, not obviously
Lights are fading, casting shadows on the ceiling
Something changed
Seems so strange, so still and surreal
The days are merging now we're deep in the moment

Night and day, it feels like we're dreaming
Lights are fading, endlessly revealing
Something changed
Everybody, everyone seems strange, so strange, strange, strange
Days are merging now we're deep in the moment

Deep in the moment
Deep in the moment
Deep in the moment
Deep in the moment

Lost in time now nothing is real
Was kinda hoping it could stay this way forever
Dance all day, oh just let us be free
The days are merging, let's get lost all together

Something changed not obviously
The lights are fading casting shadows on the ceiling
But now it's over, it's over for real
And all I wanna do, all I wanna do

I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment

Something changed what you want, what you need
Something changed what you want, what you need

Deep in the moment
So deep in the moment
So deep in the moment

Something changed, not obviously
Dance all day, oh just let us be free

The days are merging, let's get lost all together

Something changed not obviously
The lights are waving casting shadows on the ceiling
But now it's over, it's over for real
And all I wanna do, all I wanna do

I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment

I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment

I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
I wanna go back
Take me back
Deep in the moment
