

White Lies

Stealing Sheep

Ooh

You say that you will but we both know you won't,
So why lie?
You say that you're right but we both know you're wrong,
So why lie?
You pretend that you're there but we both know you're not,
So why lie?
You say that you love me but we both know you don't,
So why lie?

From time to time you tell white lies to find a place to hide,
From time you think white lies are fine.

So why lie?
So why lie?
So why lie?
So why lie?
So why lie?
So why lie?
