Dream Machine

Steam Powered Giraffe

I can't see, I can't see, across the crowds
A sea of clouds and unseen dreams
They're screaming loud
But how they dance on second glance
they're smiling proud
But they are all left unseen

La ta-dah-dah-dee
La ta-dah-dah-dee-hee

Take a bow, take a bow, it's over now
Run and how run and how. Now we must flee
The electric queen; she sparked and glowed on her many screens
At night she breathes. At night she lives
But only when she dreams

She just a dream machine
If only dream machine

The silence breeds, the silence breeds, don't tear the air
No silly songs or darkening thoughts, no don't you dare

But here they come and here they'll stay, multiplying till our dying day

Who needs sleep anyway?

Build them a dream machine
If only dream machine

Yah-dah-dah-dah-dee

Yah-dah-dah-dah-dee

Yah-dah-dah-dah-dee
Yah-dah-dah-dah-dee

Walk away, walk away into the night
A sea of fright and unseen fiends who want a bite
Don't let them in, where have they been? It isn't right
Just take yours breaths. For now, it's light.
The sun is up. The curtain's 'bout to rise

Dream Machine
If only
Dream Machine
If only
