

Ruminating Rays

Steam Powered Giraffe

Ruminating rays
Tossin' and turning through the waves

When the spark fades from your eyes you attest it's gone awry
When the light drains from the world you swear it was never by your side
Oh oh and you take that in stride

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

Underneath the surface from the depths you see with a farsight
All the beams of light the deep tried to shake with all of its might Whoa whoa but you put up a fight

All those answers in the distance are the thoughts filling your head
Tied to strings of the heart now are these thoughts just better off dead?
Oh when you can't reach, you can't speak, for the solace musings you bled
But hope washes over your open heart with those ruminating rays

Ruminating rays
Tossin' and turning through the waves
Ruminating rays
Cuttin' through to the depths everyday
And at night they stay
With the moon reflecting those ruminating rays

Those rays

The churning, yearning, and burning desire you feel in this plight
What it's tied to ain't your anchor, it just pulls a bit too tight
Oh oh and it gives you a fright
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

Far down, deep down, way down, straight down
Where it seems light ceases to be
Make those photographic memories arise for a sight to see
Oh oh at the bottom of this sea

All those answers in the distance are the thoughts filling your head
Tied to strings of the heart now are these thoughts just better off dead?
Oh when you can't reach, you can't speak, for the solace musings you bled
But hope washes over your open heart with those ruminating rays

Ruminating rays
Tossin' and turning through the waves
Ruminating rays
Cuttin' through to the depths everyday
And at night they stay
With the moon reflecting those ruminating rays

Those rays

Ruminating rays
Tossin' and turning through the waves
Ruminating rays
Cuttin' through to the depths everyday
And at night they stay

With the moon reflecting those ruminating rays
