

I Got What You Want

Steel Panther

Well you can go and buy some stuff
But it will never be enough
To fill the void that's in your soul
But I got something to fill that hole

Baby, everything you want is right here in my pants
Everything you need, come on and take that chance
You know I got what you want

I got what you want baby
I got what you want baby
I got what you want baby
I got what you want baby

Five and a half inches of love
Of love

Well you can date a thousand guys
But what I got between my thighs
Is like the sun cause it's always high
And iGo compass it always points to Yogee's spine

Baby, everything you want is right here in my pants
Everything you need to cure your menstrual cramps
You know I got what you want

I got what you want baby (I got what you want)
I got what you want baby (I got what you need)
I got what you want baby (Baby lickin' your lips)
I got what you want baby

Five and a half inches of love

I can't leave you, what's your name?
You and I were to born to rock
Let me fill you with my sack

There ain't no other guy around
Who's gonna fill you up downtown

I got what you want
I got what you want baby (I got what you need)
I got what you want baby (C'mon give me the chance)
I got what you want baby (I wanna swallow my pains)
I got what you want baby (I got what you want)
I got what you want baby (I got what you need)
I got what you want baby (Owww)
I got what you want baby

Five and a half inches of love

Let me lick on your balls
I mean wait suck on my balls baby
That's what I meant to say
Yeah I'm knockin' nah nah
