

Children in the 90s (I'm Not the Same)

Steel Train

You think I want this?
Everything bugs me
I made a hell and now I want sickness gone
I used to think these horrible things
You know I felt nothing burning in my gut

But I'm not the same as I was then

Heart caught fire with the flames of death
I'm 19 years old, let it burn, let it burn
For all those years there sitting in the basement
Hiding from the seed of shy love that could grow in my gut

But I'm not the same as I was then

We are born with a melody
We were children in the 90s
We're gonna hear it again tonight
I want to hear it again tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight

I'd be up with the sun (right)
Blood in my eyes (alright)
Thinking get it right (wait, what?)
Get it right, get it right, all night
I wake the pain and I take a pill
I fill a hole with air and sugar, not gold

But I'm not the same as I was then

We are born with a melody
We were children in the 90s
We're gonna hear it again tonight
I want to hear it again tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
But I'm not the same as I was then
We are born with a melody
We were children of the 90s
We're gonna hear it again tonight
I want to hear it again tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
We're gonna take it all back tonight
HEY!
