

Blow Your Trumpet Gabriel

Steeleye Span

Blow your trumpet, Gabriel
Blow louder, louder
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Mary mild sits always
Singing praises every day
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Blow your trumpet, Gabriel
Blow louder, louder
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

The angel came with glorious sound
Love incarnate was come down
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Blow your trumpet, Gabriel
Blow louder, louder
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Mary pondered in her heart
All the angel did impart
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Blow your trumpet, Gabriel
Blow louder, louder
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem

Blow your trumpet, Gabriel
Blow louder, louder
And I hope that trumpet blows me home
To the new Jerusalem
