

Crown of Ice

Steeleye Span

Be my queen of the winter world
Live in a palace beyond all price
Now that I'm mortal and living in your world
Won't you wear my crown of ice?

This is my world
But it could be ours
I asked you once
And I asked you twice
To be my bride in the crystal kingdom
You'd look so pretty in a crown of ice

Crown of ice
The gods have spoken
Crown of ice
Just a fleeting token
Crown of ice
When a promise is broken
Love melts away

Farewell dress of the dancing light
The one that you wore at the very start
The palace is crashing all around us
Everything is melting but your heart

Crown of ice
The gods have spoken
Crown of ice
Just a fleeting token
Crown of ice
When a promise is broken
Love melts away

Kiss my blue lips
My only one
All is done
Now fun dies

Frost to fire
Draw down the sun
To melt your crown of ice

[Instrumental]

Crown of ice
The gods have spoken
Crown of ice
Just a fleeting token
Crown of ice
When a promise is broken
Love...
Crown of ice
The gods have spoken
Crown of ice
Just a fleeting token
Crown of ice
When a promise is broken

Love melts away
