

The Fox

Steeleye Span

You can hound me now you've found me
But I'm far more cunning than you
I'm a shy fox, I'm a sly fox
And I'll teach you a lesson or two I'll run you through the hawthorn hedge and tear your dogs to shreds
I'll lead you from the open fields
into the flower beds
I'll lead you from the open fields
into the nearest town
And take you to my hunting ground

Run, run, I won't give in Run, run, I'll never give in Run, run, run, I won't give in Run, run, run, I'll never give in

You can hound me now you've found me
But I'm far more cunning than you
I'm a brown fox, I'm a town fox
And I'll teach you a lesson or two I'll introduce electric fence to every horse and hound
And watch the horses suffering upon the stoney ground
I'll lead you from the open fields
into the nearest town
And take you to my hunting ground

Run, run, I won't give in
Run, run, I'll never give in
Run, run, run, I won't give in
Run, run, run, I'll never give in
