

Today in Bethlehem

Steeleye Span

Come all with singing, come all with singing
To the place where Christ lies
For there in Bethlehem, there in Bethlehem
You'll find a manger

Christ child of story is born in glory
Wise men adore Him, beasts kneel before Him
Shepherds singing, praying, stars on high obeying
O what wonders, wonders to see

What have the wise men, what have the wise men
Laid before His cradle?
Gold, frankincense and myrrh, frankincense
All for a King's adoring

Christ child of story is born in glory
Wise men adore Him, beasts kneel before Him
Shepherds singing, praying, stars on high obeying
O what wonders, wonders to see

Here are the shepherds, here are the shepherds
With a lamb to give Him
Angels have told them come from the hillside
Meet the tiny stranger

Christ child of story is born in glory
Wise men adore Him, beasts kneel before Him
Shepherds singing, praying, stars on high obeying
O what wonders, wonders to see

There lies the mother, her babe adoring
Joseph watches near her
Watches the Christ child, watches the Christ child
The world's Redeemer

Christ child of story is born in glory
Wise men adore Him, beasts kneel before Him
Shepherds singing, praying, stars on high obeying
O what wonders, wonders to see

Come all with singing, come all with singing
To the place where Christ lies
For there in Bethlehem, there in Bethlehem
You'll find a manger

Christ child of story is born in glory
Wise men adore Him, beasts kneel before Him
Shepherds singing, praying, stars on high obeying
O what wonders, wonders to see
