

Roadkill (...or Be Killed)

Steelwing

Cloud of dust in the desert sands
Dogs of war at my command
We are mobile brutality
Propelled by our thunder machines

In the roar of an engine
You lost everything you knew
Ant in a firestorm of fear
You will burn as the dust now clears

Your life no more worth to me
Than a gallon of gasoline, you'll see

Kill or be killed
Lord of the Wasteland
Kill or be killed
King of the road
Kill or be killed
Maraud and disgrace
Kill or be killed
Stand true to the code of roadkill

The scavengers soon will rule
Waging war for a tank of fuel
And as man will feed on man
You may die by my hand

Your life no more worth to me
Than a gallon of gasoline, you'll see

Kill or be killed
Lord of the Wasteland
Kill or be killed
King of the road
Kill or be killed
Maraud and disgrace
Kill or be killed
Stand true to the code of roadkill

Engines roaring
Taste of sweat
See me coming
Face your death

Cloud of dust in the desert sands
Dogs of war at my command
We are mobile brutality
Propelled by our thunder machines

Your life no more worth to me
Than a gallon of gasoline, you'll see

Kill or be killed

Lord of the Wasteland
Kill or be killed
King of the road
Kill or be killed
Maraud and disgrace
Kill or be killed
Stand true to the code of roadkill

Kill or be killed
Highways of death
Kill or be killed
White line nightmares as set in
Kill or be killed
Maraud and disgrace
Kill or be killed
Stand true to the code of roadkill

Kill or be killed!
