

Falling

Stefanie Heinzmann

He's the devil without disguise
He turned my heart to stone when he looked in my eyes
He spawned a web, I lost my head
And now the demons sleeping in my bed
And I shoulda known, shame on me
Now will it take to wash away this blasphemy
Holy water, exercise, forgive me all my sins
And I

Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees
You got me falling
Down at your feet
Forgive me all my selfishness
Baby, baby, miles and me
Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees

Is my confession, so give me peace
A broken vile was standing for eternity
I learned my lesson, so part of me
He wrapped me 'round his finger like a rosary

Should have known, but it's too late
A momentary weakness let me lose my faith
An holy mistress, dressable
I'm staring through the gates of hell

Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees
You got me falling
Down at your feet
Forgive me all my selfishness
Baby, baby, miles and me
Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees

Don't leave me in this desert alone
Don't let me face my fears on my own
Believe me, even though I've done wrong

Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees
You got me falling
Down at your feet
Forgive me all my selfishness
Baby, baby, miles and me
Baby I'm falling
Down on my knees
