

I Don't Know How To Hurt You

Stefanie Heinzmann

I don't know how to hurt you,
Seems like everything's falling...down
I don't know how to love you...no
I wish I could do you right

You just killed me tonight
You brought me back to life
With a smile...you give me just enough to fly
I will not surrender
Please...Help me find a way
Have you nothing else to say
And even though my soul is cryin'
My heart longs to keep tryin'
To keep up the fight

I don't know how to hurt you,
Seems like everything's falling...down
I don't know how to love you...no
I wish I could do you right

There's a wall of silence
I see you stand behind
That's why your heart is so hard to find
I got something to say
People give up on love so easy
Communication is the key
Just keep on talkin' keep on trying keep on fightin'
(For love)
And even though my soul is cryin'
My heart longs to keep tryin'
To keep up the fight

I don't know how to hurt you,
Seems like everything's falling...down
I don't know how to love you...no
I wish I could do you right

No hugs
No fuss it's getting serious
So serious
More love more joy more love
More everything (I'm fighting for love)
That's what I'm fighting for

I don't know how to hurt you,
Seems like everything's falling...down
I don't know how to love you...no
I wish I could do you right
