

Old Flame

Stefanie Heinzmann

Tel me how to win this wicked game we play ay
How you keep me here when I should walk away ay
Don't think I will survive this blinding light
Don't know if I will make it home tonight

Can't fight fire with fire
Can't deny true desire
My heart fills up with fever
Every time I hear your name
One kiss and it's ignited
One lifetime trying to fight it
My tears are hot and they fall like rain
Nothing burns like an old flame

Just a stolen glance can set my soul ablaze
One touch of your hand it's just like yesterday ay
Don't think I will survive this blinding light
Don't know if I will make it home tonight

Hello again
I thought it was over then
I start feeling stronger when
I just see your face and then
Then suddenly it's on
It's on again
