

Still Have Love

Stefanie Heinzmann

We are made to live, to love, to learn from all of our mistakes
, mh
On your way you might break some hearts but some might do the same to you

So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love for you
Whatever you be, whatever you need, I will still have love for you
Don't you ever be free to lose
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for you

I will still have love for you
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for

You and I, we are human, apart of the changing ties
It ain't always easy, oh, to recognize who you were and are until the years roll by

So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love for you
Whatever you be, whatever you need, I will still have love for you
Don't you ever be free to lose
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for you

I will still have love for you
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for

It's just a lapse, I promise, it's not that bad
It's just a lapse, mh, it's not that bad
It's just a lapse, I promise, it's not that bad
It's just a lapse, mh, yeah

So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love for you
Whatever you be, whatever you need, I will still have love for you
Don't you ever be free to lose
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for you, mh, yeah
I will still have love for you
So whatever you do, whatever you do, I will still have love, I will still have love for you
