

You Got Me

Stefanie Heinzmann

It's like coming up for air after diving for a lifetime
It's like going at full speed after burning through the brake lights
And now I found someone I can talk to with my mother tongue, you're the one
And now I can say, this is where my happy endings begun, just begun

'Cause you, you get me
Yeah, you get me like I've never known
And you, you get me
Like you've met me a long time ago
You can hear me mumble in a noisy crowd
Not an easy person, but you figure me out
You, you get me
Yeah, you get me, yeah

A new love can be so shaky like dancing on a tightrope (tightrope, tightrope)
But with you it feels so easy I do it with my eyes closed (eyes closed, eyes closed)
It's like I never knew I was trapped until I found the key
You're the key
I was stuck in a rut, but you got what I need to be free
Don't you see?

'Cause you, you get me
Yeah, you get me like I've never known
And you, you get me
Like you've met me a long time ago
You can hear me mumble in a noisy crowd
Not an easy person, but you figure me out
You, you get me
Yeah, you get me, yeah

They say, you walk a mile without taking the first step
And I'm so happy with it 'cause now everything's perfect

'Cause you, you get me
Yeah, you get me like I've never known

And you, you get me
Like you've met me a long time ago
You can hear me mumble in a noisy crowd
Not an easy person, but you figure me out
You, you get me
Yeah, you get me, yeah

Yeah, you get me, uh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, you get me
Yeah, you get me
Oh, you get me
