Just so I could feel your love, just somethin'
Dying over you, somethin' I could do
Just so I could feel your love, just somethin'

You keep me wanting more
You got me on my knees, you got me on my back
When mi back, him seh mi bad to di max

Baby, it's me, I miss you
You the only that I'm into
Look, from all that we've been through
You should know that I'd never diss you
And I'm writin' a text right now 'cause I wish you
You see, I'm the one that could fix you
But no stress, I'ma pray for your happiness
PS:

I'm not bulletproof but I will die for you
Just so I could feel your love, just somethin'
Dying over you, somethin' I could do
Just so I could feel your love, just somethin'
