

Woman Of The Hour

Stela Cole

First we'd break up then we make up
Took a breaking point to wake up
Now I'm putting on my makeup
Clear the room
Left you screaming in the kitchen
Second I turned the ignition
Sped away from all your bitching
Fuck you too

Tick tock, I been waiting for this
Tick tock, you ain't ready for this
I see you calling on my phone
If you miss me, buy a ticket my show, oh

I'm finally here, start the applause
Let's make it louder
This one's for the woman of the hour
Blood, sweat, and tears, I suffered the cost
So let's make it louder
This one's for the woman of the hour
A-a-a-a-ah
A-a-a-a-ah, ah, ah

Now I'm off your medication
Every day's a celebration
Got a brand new reputation since you're gone, yeah
This is my moment, this is my turn
You should make way, don't wanna get hurt, no

Tick tock, I been waiting for this
Tick tock, you ain't ready for this
I see you calling on my phone
If you miss me, buy a ticket my show, oh

I'm finally here, start the applause
Let's make it louder
This one's for the woman of the hour
Blood, sweat, and tears, I suffered the cost
So let's make it louder
This one's for the woman of the hour
A-a-a-a-ah
A-a-a-a-ah, ah, ah

Bet you thought that I would come back, boy
You never thought I'd make a comeback, boy
And if you ever try to come back, boy
You'll regret that, bet that you never will forget that
Bet you thought that I would come back, boy
You never thought I'd make a comeback, boy
And if you ever try to come back, boy
You'll regret that, bet that you never will forget that

I'm finally here, start the applause
Let's make it louder
This one's for the woman of the hour
Blood, sweat, and tears, I suffered the cost
So, let's make it louder

This one's for the woman of the hour

A-a-a-a-ah

A-a-a-a-ah, ah, ah
