

Walking Down The Road

Stella Jang

I was walking down the road
Thinking I know where I'm headed to Confidence overload
Believing I was ready to say

I know what I want
I'll get what I want

Still I'm walking down the road
The same one I've been holding tight on to
But many doors seem closed
Oh, was I really ready to say

I know what I want
I'll get what I want

Now what have I gotta do...

Am I walking down the road?
Is it even right to call it so
I'm inside a big joke
I don't believe I'm ready to say

I know what I want
I'll get what I want

Now what have I gotta do...
