

Don't You Worry

Stephen Bishop

No sun
No rain
No clouds
No change
Anyway I love you still tonight

They say
You let
Your heart
Forget
Even when we're miles apart

Don't you worry
Everything'll work out
Don't you worry
Everything'll work out all right

Tough girl
Tough guy
But no good
At goodbyes
And you left your kid gloves
Hanging on the door back home

He talks
She talks
He's happy
She's not

So you tell her not to cry

Don't you worry
Everything'll work out
Don't you worry
Everything'll work out

Just wait and see
I'll show you
I'll show you
How good it can be
You'll be here
In my arms
And no one will tear us apart

Don't you worry
Everything will work out

This night was meant for us
So why don't we take it?
Why don't we take it?
