

Really Wanting You

Stephen Bishop

Saw your picture in the paper
Just the other day
You were dressed in white
Not a smile in sight
I saw it in your face that day
And I was taken by surprise
You never told me you loved me
But I could see it in your eyes
And now I'm really, really wanting you

All your friends say now don't you try
To catch a falling star
'Cause when the spotlight fades
All that's left are the yesterdays
But you and me know just what we
Need to get us through
You hold on to me
And I'll hold onto you
Now I'm really, really wanting you

Somewhere in my heart, I know it
You'll never show it
But I'll be there
Just to show I care

Oh I'm really, yes I'm really
Really wanting you
