

Un Baile Del Corazon

Stephen Bishop

Night falling from heaven above
The sound of the guitar
Drifting through the moonless sky
Your face, lovely as the rose in your hair
The passion in your eyes fills me with songs of love

So, tell me when will I know
How can you tell when love is near?
For I love you so
Un baile del corazón

Your smile
Kiss from the morning sun
Like whispers in the breeze
Words of love and mystery
Fire burning deep into my soul
Your body, close to mine
I promise you the moon and the stars

So, tell me what should I say
How can I show you all that I feel?
For I love you so
Un baile del corazón

Your face
Lovely as the rose in your hair
The passion in your eyes
Fills me with songs of love

So, tell me when will I know
How can you tell when love is near?
For I love you so un baile del corazón
For I love you so un baile del corazón
Un baile del corazón...
Oh, I love you, I love you, I love you
Un baile del corazón
Un baile del corazón
Un balie del corazón
