

Wall Around Your Heart

Stephen Bishop

Here we are
In this little world
Rushing through our lives
Leaving our love at the end of the line
And the rain won't stop
It keeps beating down
We can't find the clouds
But they're all around us

And in your eyes
Lives the hurt you conceal:
When you keep it to yourself
It feels like we're trembling
Nobody's at the wheel
Oh, baby, I can't climb

No, I can't climb
The wall around your heart

We're on a train
Riding out the storm
To find the blue, blue sky
I'm feeling lucky just to be alive
Cause life's so strange
When you lose your desire
For the things you love
And now you're standing here
With no will to rise above
Oh, baby, I can't climb

No, I can't climb
The wall around your heart

We could talk it out
Talk till the night turns to day
Talk forever now
Never find the right words to say

And here we are
Walking down this road
And all I've got to give
Are the words I think you already know

Baby, I can't climb
No, I can't climb
The wall around your heart

Baby, I can't climb
No, I can't climb
This wall around your heart
Baby, I can't climb...
