Stephen Malkmus

High churn rate, enemy of risk
I call dibs on the sax in abandoned jazzland
I'm praying for a multiverse
It's a cherry idea, just refuse to argue

Shadowbanned

Sky high on reddit, karma fly
Over Amazon wheatfields and rivers of Red Bull
Drip gush drip data-driven skip
To the part where the left bros parody TED Talks

Peak interaction, top of the bill
In Blackpool come and see us shred
One for the heroes drawin' dead
Pick the lock, don't lose the combination

A prison baby shall be born
And smuggled out of Leavenworth swathed in Denim
All hail the once and future queen
May the word be spread via cracked emoji

Peak interaction never a dull moment
Go put the kids to bed
One for the heroes drawin' dead
Pick the lock, don't lose the combination
