

She Said No

Stephen Speaks

I showed up unexpected
With a present in my hand
I had this big whole great plan
To tell her I'll be better
Cause I'm a grown man
But that was when she told me no

And I still hear her voice
that made my heart soar
I still feel the pain from when it fell on the floor Gentle and clear she said "You shouldn't be here, cause I will always love you
But I don't want you anymore"

I thought it was getting better
But i misread the signs
I thought the space had changed her mind
But sadly I'm mistaken
She found another man
But now I've got no leg

And I still hear her voice
that made my heart soar
I still feel the pain from when it fell on the floor

love you
But I don't want you anymore"

I dont want you anymore

My sister tells me this is the wrong road
I said "Sisy she told me no"
My sister tells me this is the wrong road
I said "I'm sorry but sisy she said no"

And I still hear her voice
that made my heart soar
I still feel the pain from when it fell on the floor
love you
But I don't want you anymore"

Oh no no sisy she said no no
Sisy she said no no
Sisy she said no no
She said
I don't want you anymore
