Steps

I see the way you act like you're nonchalant
But theres no way to hide
Whats in your eyes whats going on I'm not I'magining the message coming through
So I'll just say the way I feel
I know you feel it too

Think I know the reason that you're holding back don't want me to see you over react
I'm the kind who has to have it rehearsed
I'm making my move I'll go first

I get bbbuzz off you
Just becccause I do
I'm saying it just the way it is
Cause it's everywhere in this room
I get a bbbuzz all night
And you're making me crazy inside
The secrets out and there aint no doubt
I wanna give this bbbuzz right back to you

I guess I could pretend as if I didnt care it's just a game tp play
To walk away and leave you there
I want you next to me so I'll just speak the truth
it's not so hard to say
Come on admit it you want it too

Think I know the reason that you're holding back
don't want me to see you over react
I'm the kind who has to have it rehearsed
I'm making my move I'll go first

I get bbbuzz off you
Just becccause I do
I'm saying it just the way it is
Cause it's everywhere in this room
I get a bbbuzz all night
And you're making me crazy inside
The secrets out and there aint no doubt
I wanna give this bbbuzz right back to you

You know it's true I get electric when I feel everything yo dddo
