Clouds

Steps

You're gonna shine so bright, your mama told you
The apple of her eye, her little soldier
When life is getting hard and getting cold
You wanna run, you wanna run

Oh oh oh oh oh, we all want the same things
Oh oh oh oh oh, some just don't admit it
Oh oh oh oh oh, blink and you'll miss it
The world, we want the world

You don't need to worry now
You don't need to worry now
The sky keeps on changing
You don't need to work it out
You don't need to work it out
Keep your head in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
Keep your head in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds, clouds

Your daddy raised you up to be a fighter
He said to take your time and build your fire
Those shooting stars, you know they burn so bright
But then they're gone, but then they're gone

Oh oh oh oh oh, you race to the finish
Oh oh oh oh oh, but you're just beginning
Oh oh oh oh oh, blink and you'll miss it
The world, we want the world

You don't need to worry now
You don't need to worry now
The sky keeps on changing
You don't need to work it out
You don't need to work it out
Keep your head in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
Keep your head in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds, clouds

Oh yeah, it's better up here
It's better to dance in the rain, yeah
Uh, got nothing to fear now, don't worry now
Ooh yeah, it's better up here
It's better to dance in the rain, yeah
Uh, got nothing to fear, don't worry now-oooh

You don't need to worry now
You don't need to worry now
The sky keeps on changing
You don't need to work it out
You don't need to work it out
Keep your head in the clouds

In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
Keep your head in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds
In the clouds, in the clouds, clouds
