

What the Future Holds

Steps

One more tear drop
The surface tension breaks
And if the surface tension breaks
Then I will pour my pain and more

Then my heart stops
What will it take
'Cause if it breaks, if it breaks
'Cause if it does, I'll turn to dust

One foot in the past, and one foot in the future
I need to take a class on staying right here with you

I'm drowning in my history
Prisoner of past defeats
Tell me what the future holds
Tell me, baby (Oh)

I'm terrified of things to come
Paralyzed, I cannot run
Tell me what the future holds
Tell me, baby (Oh)

Stuck in quicksand, I think of us
I think of us in my mirage
I can't get out
And I'm scared now

One foot in the past, and one foot in the future
I need to take a class on staying right here with you

I'm drowning in my history
Prisoner of past defeats
Tell me what the future holds
Tell me, baby (Oh)

So kiss me 'til the break of dawn (Ah-ah-ah)
And I will lie here in your arms (Ah-ah-ah)
And I will try to live tonight
Like it's the last day of my life
'Cause I love you, baby, please save me
From my mind

I'm drowning in my history
Prisoner of past defeats
Tell me what the future holds
Tell me, baby (Oh)

I'm terrified of things to come
Paralyzed, I cannot run
Tell me what the future holds
Tell me, baby (Oh)

I'm drowning in my history (Ah-ah-ah)
A prisoner of past defeats (Ah-ah-ah)
Tell me what the future holds (Ah-ah-ah)
Tell me, baby (Oh, ah-ah-ah)

I'm terrified of things to come (Ah-ah-ah)
Paralyzed, I cannot run (Ah-ah-ah)
Tell me what the future holds (Ah-ah-ah)
Tell me, baby (Oh, ah-ah-ah)
