I remember you
Do you remember me too

Born on the fourteenth of July
The smell of roses made her cry
And though your going far from home
Rest assured you're not alone

'Cause I would give everything that I own
I'd give you my heart, and this skin and these bones
The sun the moon, the earth the sky
And never even stop to wonder why

And I would do anything
I would give everything
To be your everything

Seems like such long long time
Since your body crossed my mind
But I think that you should know
It wasn't I who had to go

'Cause I would give everything that I own
I'd give you my love and this heart made of stone
The sun the moon, the earth the sky
The motorcycle that I like to ride

And I would do anything
And I would give everything
To be your everything

But if ever you should stay
Just sing along and I will play
Or look into your hands
I'm slipping through them like a tiny grain of sand

I remember you
Do you remember me too
Seems like such a long long time
Since I held you near and called you mine

'Cause I would give everything that I own
I'd give you my heart and this skin and these bones
The sun the moon, the earth the sky
A brand new car that you and I could drive

And I would do anything
And I would give everything
To be your everything
