

Runaway's

Stereo Skyline

Isn't it amazing
That in a place so dark
Our hearts could Find each other yet, and
Wouldn't it be something
If we got lost, took off
One way, where we
Could be exactly who we want to
We could...

Plant our flag, a new continent
That no one's ever found yet
And claim it all for you and I
In past time

So let's be runaways
And start a new world that's only ours
And find our hideaway, yeah
And set ourselves for somewhere beyond the stars
A secret place that only we know
If you leave then I will follow, yeah

You, you and I, runaways
You, you and I, runaways
Eh, yeah
You, you and I, runaways
You, you and I, runaways
Eh, yeah

We could...
Leave it all behind us
I'll be honest if I'm with you
The truth is that I
I wouldn't miss a thing
We could...

Stay forever, an adventure
And we'd never, have to deal
Without each other again

So let's be runaways
And start a new world that's only ours
And find our hideaway, yeah
And set ourselves for somewhere beyond the stars
A secret place that only we know
If you leave then I will follow, yeah

You, you and I, runaways
You, you and I, runaways
Eh, yeah
You, you and I, runaways
You, you and I, runaways
Eh, yeah
