The Monster

Stereo Total

I was never afraid of nothin' i already saw monsters but since a few days i know one ouah he's so ugly

And forever i'll remember the fear that he gave me vertigo's nothing compared with it ouah he's so ugly

he came by here coucou he came by there uhuhahahoho he put a chain around the neck of every girl he met

I didn't want to see him from near i was afraid, so i hided in the deepest, deepest woods my god, he's so ugly but he came back and didn't stop to follow me step by step you should believe it, it's for real ouah he's so ugly

He came by here

But suddenly he took my hand he was not a monster anymore and you know what? at the end i said to him: come i love you so i love you so

He came by here

He puts a chain around the neck of every girl he loves of every girl he loves I was never afraid of nothin' i already saw monsters but since a few days i know one ouah he's so ugly

And forever i'll remember the fear that he gave me vertigo's nothing compared with it ouah he's so ugly
