My Addiction

Stereomud

You're more than my addiction You're the beautiful one that I have found You're my secret and I've waited For far too long You've been such an affliction Condescending to me I will hold you down Till I show you what it's like to be betrayed You'll never stop looking for you

You want for me to forget What I have felt for so long

I will find you in the darkest room you hide in I will find you and you know I will

You're your own contradiction It's misleading when you smile and scream You're confusing at the same time Abusing me abusing me And no matter what you think How convincing you are you can't fool me 'Cause I know you and I'll show You ya feel the same You'll never stop me looking for you

You wait for me to forget What I have felt for so long

I will find you in the darkest room you hide in I will find you and you know I will

You don't have to hide from me anymore 'Cause I know everything about you No you don't have to hide from me anymore 'Cause I'm coming to find

Give in give in Can't escape from me Give in...
