

All I Have Is You

Stereophonics

You said I always let you down
It's over, now I'm a broken man
There's no ways I can get you back, no?
And you said you gave me my last chance, yeah

I used to be the one you wanted
And now I'm just alone and haunted
All I have, all I have is you, yeah
All I have, all I have is you

It takes me time to erase
Your face from my head, babe
And lately I walk by our place
They painted the red door we made

I used to be the one you wanted
And now I'm just alone and haunted
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you, you, you
Yeah
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you

Time heals they say, yeah
The night turns to day
And now I know the way I treated you was wrong
It was wrong
It was wrong
It was wrong
Yeah, it was wrong
Yeah, it was wrong
It was wrong
Oh oh

All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
All I have, all I have is you
