

Close Enough To Drive Home

Stereophonics

Driving back from your house
It's a Sunday morning
And the clocks have gone back last night
Thinking back to what you said
It still plays on my mind
Then the sun breaks through the trees
So I step right on it

So you instigated
You're so infatuated
And where you're situated
Is close enough for me to drive home
And yeah, you said you waited
Until we could not take it
And yeah, I hope we make it
Now you're close enough for me to drive home

I been away for so long
How did you remember?
You must be with somebody, I thought
Then you asked me to your house
With your friends out drinking
And now you ask me back again
So I step right on it

So you instigated
You're so infatuated
And where you're situated
Is close enough for me to drive home
And yeah, you said you waited
Until we could not take it
And yeah, I hope we make it
Now you're close enough for me to drive home

Yeah, drive you home

So you instigated
You're so infatuated
And where you're situated
Is close enough for me to drive home
And yeah, you said you waited
Until we could not take it
And yeah, I hope we make it
Now you're close enough for me to drive home

Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
You're close enough for me to drive home

Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
