

Flow down the river
Here comes a storm over
The world doesn't owe ya
Rain will come down

Streams of destruction
Pressure on everyone
Look over your shoulder
Now shines the way

Lately, I felt so scared inside
And who am I kidding? I
I felt like this my whole life
It's a crime to say I feel alive
A prisoner in my mind
Fade to black, hope to find
The light, light

Know I'm your brother
The world is your mother
The breath of a lover
You take for granted today

Oh run for cover
Compare me with others
A heart in a cage
Trying to find the key

Lately, I felt so scared inside
Who am I kidding? I
I felt like this my whole life
It's a crime to say I feel alive
A prisoner in my mind
Fade to black, hope to find

Lately, I felt so scared inside
Ah, who am I kidding? I
I felt like this my whole life
It's a crime to say I feel alive
A prisoner in my mind
Fade to black, hope to find
The light
Yeah, the light
