

Look Good

Stereos

Put me on your shelf
Made it hurt like hell
And I ain't gonna wish you well
No, I don't think about you
(I don't think about you)

Now I ain't even mad
Ain't no time for sad
Am I movin' on? Hell yeah
No, I don't think about you
(I don't think about you)

And I don't think about you
But I know you think about me cuz...

Damn - I look good
I bet you wanna get me back
Damn - I look good
Now I'm the one you wish you had

Not good enough for you, that's why you lemme go
Now you can't help yourself, you're all out of control
It's not like you love me, it's only physical
You'll never get this body again
And now you're like - damn

I'm the best out of your exes, oh
Don't hit me on the texts, no
No matter what your friend said though
I don't think about you
(I don't think about you)

You lost a 20 out of 10
Never comin' back again
And I don't think about you
But I know you think about me cuz...

Damn - I look good
I bet you wanna get me back
Damn - I look good
Now I'm the one you wish you had

Not good enough for you, that's why you lemme go
Now you can't help yourself, you're all out of control
It's not like you love me, it's only physical
You'll never get this body again
And now you're like

(I look good)

And I don't think about you
But I know you think about me cuz...

Damn - I look good
I bet you wanna get me back
Damn - I look good
Now I'm the one you wish you had

Not good enough for you, that's why you lemme go
Now you can't help yourself, you're all out of control
It's not like you love me, it's only physical
You'll never get this body again
And now you're like - damn
