

Too High

Stereoside

Sometimes I feel like I'm invisible
I get the point and then I change my mind
The long way arising so inevitable
But the moment seems to pass me right by
I don't need to know the conversation
So let's just take this one step at a time

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high... yeah

Just when you feel that you're dispensable
And forget to even feel that you're alive
Don't pay no mind to man's desirables
'Cause you just might get hurt, oh yeah, this time

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high

Well I tell you, well I really do
Well I tell you

Just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high, yeah

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high

So just say what you came to say
No one's gonna listen to you anyway
But I do, yeah, and I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high, yeah

Yeah, I'm just too high
But I swear I'll try
But I'm just too high, yeah
