

No Ordinary Man

Steriogram

He keeps starting fires that he can't put out his stone wash black jeans holding up by his belt he'll tell us the stories but wont name the place and always returns with a smile on his face

Oh Oh Oh Oh
Tape your ganja to the roof
Cause its time to hide the proof
This world wont understand
That he's just no ordinary man

Don't be deceived
if he wants you to wait he might walk you home but he'll stop at the gate He'll plan you the picnic but wont let you come You'll be gagging for more but hes back on the run hes taking the power back taking it now ladies in waiting just standing around he'll give you the fever you don't understand how the clockwork goes round in the mind of this man

Oh Oh Oh Oh
Cause its time to hide the proof
This world wont understand
