

Two Day Hangover

Steriogram

Well here we go we're out and about with the ones that like to shout ended up at the Norwood drinking i can feel my wallet shrinking if i get caught up buyin' more rounds then i declare bankruptcy now will they throw down i'm stuck in a jam lucky i'm a gamblin' man

Theres something very special not working for the man slogging dusk til dawn tryin to make it if i can I wont stop looking hustle for the scratch
we live, we die, it all gets left behind

so here we go
no time to moan
down to skin and bone
soon it will flow

well here we go i did it again left too short without the bread its fine no qualms i hear the noise jingle in my pocket down through the coins no joke i'm broke, broke as a joke just settle on down keep tightening the rope keep bleeding the folks keep lighting the smokes thats why i'm a gamblin' man
