

Don't wanna kiss you
Don't wanna fight
Don't wanna talk it out
This isn't right
Uneasy feeling
I'm blurry eyed
Don't wanna shut you down
It don't feel right

My shoulders just can't hold us up
I wish that I was stronger for the both of us

'Cause I'm not gonna wait another hour
Too much on my mind keeping me down
I'm not gonna wait another hour
It's 1:11 now
And time is running out

Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running out
Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running running
It's 1:11 now

Time is running out

Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running out
Time is running running
Time is running running
Time is running running

Don't need a reason
Don't need a lie
'Cause I'm done giving you
My precious time
Wanna be weightless
Close to the sky
I wanna feel it all
That natural high

My shoulders just can't hold us up
I wish that I was stronger for the both of us

'Cause I'm not gonna wait another hour
Too much on my mind keeping me down
I'm not gonna wait another hour
It's 1:11 now
And time is running out

Time is running out

It's 1:11 now

Time is running out

It's 1:11 now
