

Be Somebody

Steve Aoki

They say "You should simmer down
Wait your turn, don't talk too loud
'Cause maybe you're too young to see
It's out of reach"

But I'm so impatient, fed up with waiting
Oh, if you leave me here, I'll end up suffocating
I'm in this safe space, this empty hallway
I can't be stuck in stationary, like this always

I don't need you, 'cause I got me
I don't need you for me to be somebody
Let me move, let me breathe
I don't need you for me to be somebody
To be somebody

To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody, to be somebody

Is it worse to wonder if?
Or is it worse to never leave?
'Cause after all, where would I go?
Without a home, yeah

'Cause I'm so impatient, fed up with waiting
Oh, if you leave me here, I'll end up suffocating
I'm in this safe space, this empty hallway
I can't be stuck in stationary, like this always

I don't need you, 'cause I got me
I don't need you for me to be somebody
Let me move, let me breathe
I don't need you for me to be somebody
To be somebody

To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody, to be somebody

To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody, to be somebody

To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody
I don't need you, 'cause I got me
I don't need you for me to be somebody
Let me move, let me breathe
I don't need you for me to be somebody

I don't need you, 'cause I got me
I don't need you for me to be somebody
To be somebody
